THE South-Carolina Gazette.

From MONDAY January 28th, to SATURDAY February 2d, 1751.

LONDON, October 27.

BY the foreign Gazettes, we find, that tho' the Convention with Spain was ſigned ſo early as the 24th of September N. S. yet moſt of the foreign miniſters at Madrid knew nothing of it till the 12th of October. The following are the principal articles of it, as publiſhed in the ſaid Gazettes.

" The king of Spain engages to pay to the South-ſea company, within the ſpace of three months, the ſum of one hundred thouſand pounds ſterling, by way of indemnification, as well for the non-execution of the Aſſiento treaty of the 13th of March, 1713, as to make them amends for the four years in which they did not ſend out their annual ſhip.

As to the trade and navigation of the Engliſh in the ports of the king of Spain's dominions, the treaties of 1667 and 1670, that of Utrecht of the year 1713, the 1ſt, 4th, 5th and 7th articles of the treaty of 1715, and that of 1721, ſhall be punctually obſerved and executed.

In conſequence of which diſpoſitions, the Engliſh ſhips that come to trade in the ports of his Catholick majeſty, ſhall pay no other duties for the goods they import or export, than ſuch as they uſed to pay in the reign of king Charles the ſecond of Spain.

The ſubjects of Great Britain, in the places where they ſhall come to traffick, ſhall pay only the ſame duties as are laid on the ſubjects of his Catholick majeſty, who means that the Engliſh ſhall be treated in his dominions on the ſame footing as the nations the moſt favoured. And moreover, they ſhall continue to enjoy the privilege of taking in ſalt at the iſland of Tortuga, which is poſſeſſed by the Spaniards."

They alſo tell us, that when this Convention is ratified, it will be publiſhed by authority here: In the mean time they obſerve, that it has been received with great joy at Hanover; and we hope that when the whole of it is publiſhed, it will give as much ſatisfaction here.

Paris, Oct. 23. The Earl of Albemarle has lately received very important diſpatches from his court, whereby, it is ſaid, he is charged to make heavy complaints to our miniſtry, of the delays made in the evacuating the iſlands of Tobago, St. Lucia, &c. Our laſt letters from Madrid adviſe, that orders had been ſent to the Marquis d'Aſlora who was appointed by the king ambaſſador to Vienna, and was ſet out in order to repair thither, to ſtop at Saragoſſa until he received freſh orders. The departure of the Marquis de Mirepoix for London, to exerciſe again the function of the king's ambaſſador there, is, we are aſſured, deferred till the 20th of next month. The utmoſt diligence is uſed in divers ports and docks of this kingdom, in building of ſhips, of which the court propoſes to form ſeveral ſquadrons to protect our merchant ſhips in the little parts of the world to which they trade. The conferences which are begun at the Louvre between his majeſty's commiſſaries and thoſe of the king of Great-Britain, have not yet had the ſucceſs that was expected from them, and ſome time is likely to paſs before all points in diſpute can be agreed upon.

London, Oct. 28. On Thurſday when his royal highneſs the prince of Wales (eſcorted by a party of horſe guards to Temple-Bar) came, in his ſtate coach, attended by two others, in which were the lords of the bed-chamber, &c. to Fiſhmonger's-Hall in Thames-ſtreet, to receive the charter of the Britiſh herring fiſhery company, as governor thereof, 21 pieces of cannon were fired at his arrival; and his royal highneſs was received at the door of the hall by Mr. alderman Bethell, preſident of the ſociety, Mr. alderman Janſſen, vice-preſident, admiral Vernon, general Oglethorpe, and ſuch of the ſociety as were in town; and afterwards by the maſter and court of aſſiſtants of the Fiſhmongers company, in their gowns, who all waited on him to their parlour. His royal highneſs being ſeated there, made a moſt gracious ſpeech, expreſſive of his high regard for the proſperity of the city of London. Then, the fiſhery charter being read by Mr. Tomkyns, clerk of the Fiſhmongers company, his royal highneſs wiſh'd all imaginable ſucceſs to this national undertaking, and declared he had the welfare of it extremely at heart. Mr. Tomkyns then thanked his royal highneſs, for the great honour done the ſociety, in a very handſome ſpeech; and beſeeching him to accept of the freedom of the Fiſhmongers company, his royal highneſs condeſcended to acquieſce with the offer. The table-cloth being ſpread, a large quantity of Shetland pickled herrings, &c. (bought at the Olive-Tree in Pater-noſter-row, facing the paſſage going into Newgate-market) were ſerved up in china; on which occaſion his royal highneſs eat very heartily, and the whole company preſent. There was a conſiderable concourſe of ladies and gentlemen to ſee the ceremony, who all breakfaſted on tea, coffee, and chocolate; and at the entertainment of the herrings, there was a profuſion of the richeſt wines. His royal highneſs, after again wiſhing the herring-fiſhery ſucceſs, drinking a health to it, and appointing the council to meet upon buſineſs on Wedneſday the 7th of next November, retir'd, ſeemingly with the greateſt ſatisfaction; the cannon firing as his going away.

His royal highneſs's coach, during the cavalcade, was preceded by his footmen and watermen two and two.

Advices from Francfort inform us, that great numbers of horſes, all bought up in Germany, continue to paſs by that city, for remounting the French Cavalry, particularly the regiments in garriſon at Straſbourg, Schleſtadt, and other towns of Alſace. They alſo take notice that the French are taking other meaſures to put themſelves in a warlike poſture on that ſide.

They write from Paris, that the French commiſſaries had given up the point they ſo long inſiſted on, that the ſettling the limits of Nova Scotia and the evacuation of the neutral iſlands ſhould be taken into conſideration alternatively; ſo that the adjuſting the limits of the territories of the two crowns in America makes the preſent ſubject of their conferences.

Oct. 11. According to advices from Rome, the government appears inclined to turn their thoughts to trade; Signor Belloni, an eminent banker there, has wrote an ample and learned diſſertation on commerce, in which he clearly lays down the methods whereby the trade of the eccleſiaſtick ſtate with the neighbouring countries may be clearly improved; which work is actually in the preſs, and will ſpeedily be publiſhed. They alſo tell us that the Cardinal ſecretary of ſtate, and other members of the government, who have ſeen the manuſcript, highly approve of the banker's notions, and will reduce them to practice as far as poſſible. The ſame advices inform us, that father Borawitz, a celebrated mathematician, is going to make obſervations, by the pope's orders, along with an able aſtronomer, in the principal towns of the eccleſiaſtick ſtate, in order to fix the true meridian thereof.

Oct. 16. By letters from Campbelltown in Argyleſhire, of the 9th inſtant, the two Engliſh buſſes, called the Bed-

Argyle, had caught near fifty barrels of fine large , and had a fair proſpect of ſoon compleating their

25. Letters from Naples obſerve, that though they have ery plentiful harveſt in that kingdom and in Sicily, the court ed a proclamation forbidding under ſevere penalties the ex- on of corn in foreign parts, upon any pretext whatſoever; reaſon of which prohibition is, that the government intends to the old magazines, and erect ſeveral new ones, for the ſub- ce of the army.

rom Barcelona we have the following account of an engage- that happened on this ſide of the Streights mouth, about the of laſt month, between one of our merchantmen, and an Al- ine Corſair mounting 30 guns, but built for 46.

he Algerine having deſcry'd the Engliſh veſſel, fired a gun to ake her bring to, that he might inſpect her paſſports. The Eng- hman, who already knew what he had to deal with, and would ot be viſited, not being able to get clear, by reaſon of the wind being againſt him, reſolved immediately to prepare for an engage- ment, and having encouraged his men, began to open his ports and run out his guns. The Algerine finding no anſwer made to the firſt ſhot, fired another gun, and bore down upon the Engliſh ſhip, who as ſoon as he was within reach poured a broadſide into him, and then tacking about, gave him another, with a ſmart volley of ſmall arms, which in an inſtant cleared his deck. The pirate's men kept a little while under the deck after this ſlaughter among them; but to ſhew that they were not all killed, they kept plying their guns, which did but little execution; and the Engliſh, by another broadſide, tore almoſt all their rigging, and killed ma- ny more of the Algerines; after which they came along-ſide of the pirate, and grappled with him; and though the Algerines ſtill ſhewed about 60 men upon deck, the Engliſh captain, at the head of 25 men, leapt into their ſhip ſword in hand, and in leſs than fifteen minutes diſabled the 60 Turks. Being thus become maſter of the Corſair, he began to ſearch for a booty, but quickly per- ceived his conqueſt would turn to little account beſides ridding the ſeas of a pirate: And moreover, the Algerine veſſel having catch- ed fire, and the flames being on the point of reaching the gunner's room, he had but juſt time to get on board his own ſhip, and get to windward of the Algerine, which blew up in an inſtant after.

MAJOR'S Imperial Phœnix SNUFF,

WHICH many Thouſands of Perſons have found to be a very effectual Remedy for taking away Diſorders of, and in the Head, and in the following Ailments. It inſtantly removes Drowſineſs, Giddineſs, Vapours, Deafneſs, Evil in the Eyes, or any Humour in them, Dropſies, or Stoppage or Cold in the Head, Jaundice, Quinſey, &c. the Catarrhs, or Drippings from the Head upon the Lungs, Tickling Coughs and Conſumptions; it brings away all Mercury that lodgeth in the Head, which may be occaſioned by taking too much, or by Trades that are offenſive to the Brain. It inſtantly cureth the Head-ach and Tooth-ach, be the Pain ever ſo violent. It immediately takes hold of, and carries off Swellings or Breakings-out in the Face, &c. or Sores, or ſtubborn Itchings in the Body, and will leave you clean inwardly and outwardly: It cureth the Megrim, Falling-ſickneſs, and reſtoreth a very good Appetite, as it will give a Warmth and quick Circulation to the Blood.

To help the Cure of Deafneſs, it is neceſſary, ſometimes, to have a Bottle of Oil, to drop three or four Drops into each Ear: It hath perfected a Cure for thoſe that have been deaf for five or ſix Years, and longer.

To be ſold, by the Author's Appointment, only at Meſſrs. BROWN and DRAKEFORD's Store in George Town, and at Capt. THOMAS CROSTHWAITE's in Charles-Town.

The Uſe and Operations of the Imperial Phœnix SNUFF.

SNUFF the whole Paper or half going to Bed; you will ſeldom ſneeze till you riſe in the Morning: A ſecond Doſe is not to be taken till Four, Five, or ſix Days after the firſt; and, inſtead of occaſioning any Cold to be taken, it carries off the Humour that occaſions Colds, and brings the Blood to ſupport the Part; Sometimes it works off ſharp Waters, ſometimes Corruption and Blood, ſometimes like Size or Glue: It draws off all Phlegm, and other Matter, from the Stomach. There is no Occaſion to be afraid of a little Blood, for it is Part of the Cure. As you ſee the foul Matter brought away, it is a better Proof than ever was ſeen before, and gives a true Demonſtration of its Efficacy. The Noſe being the proper Channel to carry it off, the ſore Noſe will ceaſe after the Diſtemper goes off. Sometimes One, Two, Three Papers, or more muſt be taken, as yourſelf may ſee the Caſe requires. There is no Occaſion to keep from Buſineſs or Within-doors, or to alter your Diet for its Working. Upon Occaſion it may be taken any Time of the Day; only you are to refrain blowing the Noſe for ſome Hours.

Conſider the Advantage in the Operations of this Snuff in Eating and Drinking, and Going where you pleaſe, and no Sickneſs at Stomach, nor Griping, or Diſagreeableneſs; the niceſt and weakeſt Perſons may take it.
